Globe Writing Group

19:00 – 21:00 - Writing Group:

All types of writers are welcomed at Globe's weekly writing group; whether you are a screenwriter, novelist, poet, journalist or anything in between, the Globe Writing Group offers an outlet to any writer living and creating in Prague! Through the use of critique and work-shopping, we hope to create consistent original work while building a community of writers. If you find yourself needing to write more and wanting to be a part of a writing community, don't hesitate to email writers@globebookstore.cz for more information. Meetings begin at 19:00 and end at 21:00.

Globe Book Club

19:00 - Globe Book Club:

The Handmaid's Tale is a 1985 dystopian novel by Canadian author

Margaret Atwood. Set in a near-future New England, in a totalitarian, Christian theonomy that has overthrown the United States government, the novel explores themes of women in subjugation and the various means by which they gain individualism and independence. The novel's title echoes the component parts of Geoffrey Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales, which is a series of connected stories ("The Merchant's Tale", "The Parson's Tale", etc.). The Handmaid's Tale won the 1985 Governor General's Award and the first Arthur C. Clarke Award in 1987; it was also nominated for the 1986 Nebula Award, the 1986 Booker Prize, and the 1987 Prometheus Award. The book has been adapted into a film (1990), an opera (2000), a TV series (2017), and other media.
