Monday August 6, 2018 @
Globe Writing Group

19:00 – 21:00 Writing Group: All types of writers are welcomed at Globe's weekly writing group; whether you are a screenwriter, novelist, poet, journalist or anything in between, the Globe Writing Group offers an outlet to any writer living and creating in Prague! Through the use of critique and work-shopping, we hope to create consistent original work while building a community of writers. If you find yourself needing to write more and wanting to be a part of a writing community, don't hesitate to email writers@globebookstore.cz for more information. Meetings begin at 19:00 and end at 21:00.

Thursday August 9, 2018
Prague Reading Group

19:45 Globe Reading Group: This weeks discussion will be focusing on three short stories by Raymond Carver. Cathedral, What We Talk About When We Talk About Love and Will You Please Be Quiet, Please?

Raymond Cleve Carver Jr. (May 25, 1938 – August 2, 1988) was an American short-story writer and poet. Carver contributed to the revitalization of the American short story during the 1980s.

The story of Cathedral in which a blind man guides the hand of a sighted man as together they draw the cathedral the blind man can never see.

What we Talk About When We Talk About Love - This powerful collection of stories, set in the mid-West among the lonely men and women who drink, fish and play cards to ease the passing of time.

Will You Please Be Quiet, Please? - Carver shows how humour and tragedy dwell in the hearts of ordinary people
