Monday March 9, 2020

Globe Writing Group

19:00 – 21:00 Writing Group: All types of writers are welcomed at Globe's weekly writing group; whether you are a screenwriter, novelist, poet, journalist or anything in between, the Globe Writing Group offers an outlet to any writer living and creating in Prague! Through the use of critique and work-shopping, we hope to create consistent original work while building a community of writers. If you find yourself needing to write more and wanting to be a part of a writing community, don't hesitate to email writers@globebookstore.cz for more information. Meetings begin at 19:00 and end at 21:00.

Tuesday March 10, 2020

Globe Book Club

19:00 Globe Book Club: This weeks discussion will be on the book Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead by Olga Tokarczuk.

With Drive Your Plow Over The Bones of the Dead Man Booker International Prize-winner Olga Tokarczuk returns with a subversive, entertaining noir novel. In a remote Polish village, Janina Duszejko, an eccentric woman in her sixties, recounts the events surrounding the disappearance of her two dogs. She is reclusive, preferring the company of animals to people; she's unconventional, believing in the stars; and she is fond of the poetry of William Blake, from whose work the title of the book is taken. When members of a local hunting club are found murdered, Duszejko becomes involved in the investigation. By no means a conventional crime story, this existential thriller by 'one of Europe's major humanist writers' (Guardian) offers thought-provoking ideas on our perceptions of madness, injustice against marginalized people, animal rights, the hypocrisy of traditional religion, belief in predestination - and caused a genuine political uproar in Tokarczuk's native Poland.

Thursday March 12, 2020 Prague Reading Group

19:45 Prague Reading Group: This weeks discussion will be focused on Someone Comes to Town, Someone Leaves Town by Cory Doctorow.

A brilliantly funny and bizarre novel from the visionary author of LITTLE BROTHER, now published for the first time in the UK.

Alan is a middle-aged entrepreneur who has devoted himself to fixing up a house in a bohemian neighbourhood of Toronto. This naturally brings him into contact with the house full of students and layabouts next door, including a young woman who, in a moment of stress, reveals to him that she has wings – wings, moreover, which grow back after each attempt to cut them off.

Alan understands. He himself has a secret or two. His father is a mountain, his mother a washing machine, and among his brothers are a set of Russian nesting dolls.

Now two of the three nesting dolls, Edward and Frederick are on his doorstep – well on their way to starvation because their innermost member, George, has vanished. It appears that yet another brother, Davey, whom Alan and his other siblings killed years ago, may have returned ... bent on revenge.

Under such circumstances it seems only reasonable for Alan to involve himself with a visionary scheme to blanket Toronto with free wireless Internet connectivity, a conspiracy spearheaded by a brilliant technopunk who builds miracles of hardware from parts scavenged from the city's dumpsters.

But Alan's past won't leave him alone – and Davey is only one of the powers gunning for him and his friends.
